

No Changes in license requirements.

- Little Falls

Phase II
2018

Phase I upstream fishway, per FERC and state licenses, in place and operational when biological trigger requirements in FERC and state licenses have been met, but in case earlier than May 1, XXXX. Downstream fishway, per FERC and state licenses, in place and operational after the start of trap and truck to location(s) above Little Falls Dam. Phase II fishway in place and operational per biological trigger requirements in FERC and state licenses

2031

No other changes in license requirements

- Gambo

Phase II
2033

Phase II upstream fishway, per FERC and state licenses, in place and operational when biological triggers requirements in FERC and state licenses have been met, but in no case earlier than May 1, XXXX. Downstream fishway, per FERC and states licenses, in place and operational after the start of trap and truck to location(s) above Gambo Dam.

2036

No other changes to license requirements

- Dundee

No upstream or downstream fish passage required for the term of the FERC license.

- Other

Term of FERC license extended to XX years